

The New Indian Express

Tuesday, July 26th, 2011

Satya, Manogna champs

Express News Service

Bangalore: Satya Chauhan of Center for Management Studies and Manogna of Jain International Residential School, won the boys' and girls' titles respectively in the KSTBA - state ranking tenpin bowling tournament (Under 21) at the Star City bowling centre.

In the single game knock-out finals, Satya Chauhan beat Dev Mukesh (Presidency College) 140-120 to win the boys' title while Manogna edged out Varsha R (Mount Carmel College) 139-132 to claim the top spot in the girls' category.

Earlier in the boys semi-finals, Dev Mukesh trounced Vivek P of Christ College 200-169 While Satya Chauhan went past Sandeep M of BMS Engineering College 170-156.

In the girls semi-finals, Manogana defeated Malvika (Jain College) 152-122 and Varsha eased past Anjani Choudhary (JIRS) 156-114.

Vivek P and Malvika took the third spots among boys and girls respectively.

Special prizes for highest

(L-R) Malvika, Varsha, Manogna, Satya Chauhan, Dev Mukesh & Vivek P with their trophies

score in single game were won by Varun Ganapathy (Dayanand Sagar College) 223; Varsha R (MCC) 158.

A total of 103 boys and girls participated in the two-day event.

KSTBSA will be conducting two more events on Aug 18 and 19 and on Sept 1 & 2 before finalising the state boys and girls teams for participation in the Junior National championship (under 21) to be held in Bangalore during the third week of Sept.

Results: Boys: Final: Satya Chauhan bt Dev Mukesh 140-120. Semi-finals: Boys: Dev Mukesh bt P Vivek 200-

169; Satya Chauhan bt Sandeep Nadir 170-156.

Girls: Final: G. Manogna bt R Varsha 139-132. Semi-finals: R. varsha bt C Anjani 156-114; G Manogna bt M. Malvika 152-122.