Theme : Future Blue Print of HR Excellence

The world of work is rapidly changing. As a part of the organization, Human Resource Management (HRM) must be prepared to deal with the effects of changing the world of work. For the HR people, it means understanding the implications of globalization, work-force diversity, changing skill requirements, corporate downsizing, continuous improvement initiatives, re-engineering, the contingent workforce, decentralized work sites and employee involvement for which all and more have the financial implication to the organization. The pace of change is phenomenal and one can only imagine what the new world will look like.
